2013 Alzheimer's Association Charity Art Exhibit and Auction
September 6, 2013

APPLICATION FORM

THEME

The Alzheimer's Association has partnered with local artists and the Lubbock Arts Alliance to curate an exhibit "Marks of Memory" that will give voice to those facing Alzheimer's disease. This exhibition seeks to reflect the emotional impact this disease places on caregivers, families and society. More information on Alzheimer's disease can be found at www.alz.org.

CALENDAR

August 23, 2013 – LAST DAY for artwork submission

September 6, 2013 Opening Reception/Auction Night - "Marks Of Memory" Lubbock Art Alliance

REQUIREMENTS & GUIDELINES

This event is showcasing and raising awareness of Alzheimer's disease. A portion of the gallery will feature works of art created by artists with Alzheimer's disease. The other portion of the exhibit will showcase art by local artists as an interpretation of the disease or other expression of the artist's choosing. All submissions are considered donations on behalf of the artists to the Alzheimer's Association and will be auctioned to the highest bidder with all funds benefiting the Alzheimer's Association Lubbock Chapter.

All work submitted in "Marks of Memory" must be original works of art, entirely the work of the entrant and completed within the last 3 years. Artists can submit up to 3 works of art.

Two-dimensional work - Maximum size 24x24 inches. All 2D work must be "ready-to-hang."

Works accepted into the exhibit must be received between August 8th, 2013 and August 23, 2013. Artists are responsible for hand delivery.
